COMPLETION of Panama Railroad.—Reduction

COMPLETION of Panama Railroad.—Reduction of fare is California.—United States mail sleamships leave New York for Aspinwall on the 5th and 20th of each month, connecting with mail steamers from Panama to San Francisco.

These steamships have been inspected and approved by the Navy Department, and guaranty guest and affety.

The Panama railroad (47 miles long) is now completed from ocean to ocean, and is crossed in 3 or 4 hours. The baggage of passengers are comparted at Panama by stoamer at the company's expense. The money paid in New York covers all expenses of the trip.

Reserve exteamers are kept in port in New York, Panama, and San Francisco, to prevent detention in case of accident, so that the route is entirely reliable.

Passengers leave Panama the same day they arrive at Aspinwall. Conductors go through by each steamer, and take charge of women and children without other protectors.
